TORK OF THE W.C.T.U.

orld's Convention at Boston Hears Good Reports.

TTER FROM LADY SOMERSET

retary Tells of Extension of vement in Europe and Asia. partment-Life Membership Plan avored by Executive Committee.

ton, Oct. 18 .- The first session of the rld's convention of the Woman's Chris-Temperance Union was called to orin Tremont Temple to-day by Vice sident-at-Large Mrs. Lillian M. N. vens. Previous to this there was an ur's prayer service in the Park Street irch, conducted by Miss Elizabeth W. enwood.

v. Guild and Mayor Fitzgerald, of Bos-, after which the secretary read a mese from Lady Henry Somerset, of Engnd, the world's president. Lady Somersaid in part: Nothing, we believe to-day, is more deictive to the well-being of any people n the organized liquor traffic. Noth makes it harder for men and women fulfill the destiny for which God creat nothing undermines principle life, wastes resources, and denomes more than the drink habit the heritage of nearly the whole eport of the treasurer, Miss Mary derson, for the year ended May 31, showed net receipts of $4,585 and disements of $3,843.

Work in Various Lands.

DAILY FASHION HINT.

White Fox Is Highly Medish.

White Fox Is Highly Medish.

One almost Involuntarily associates velvets with form of the most coulty order, and there is an aird I made to this combination wherever an incomparison executaries have given for the first three is an aird I made adding a plantant tool of emphasis with a posting series of the first three are Life beanches in Great Britis, with a membership of 18%. Section of the series are also an air of the first with a posting series of the series of the first with a membership of 18%. Section of the series of the first with a membership of 18%. Section with a posting series with a section of the first with a section of the first mated to be worth about $2,000,000.

DAILY COURT RECORD.

Cressingham hurried back to his cabin, friend. He had been at first quite safiswishing above all things that there was a fied to have examined the corpse of Capt.

deor after a lapse of some minutes.

The old gentleman was lying on his right side, his mouth wide open. Crest Cressingham received him courteously and gave him a seat. The prince was excessively nervous and ill at ease, but he endeavored with so much labor to appear composed that he almost succeeded.

To be defined as above the colonel's known and E. S. Bailer—Hallam & Hallam.

No. 8. Dawson vs. Stoil. Attorneys, Chambelling Cressingham cut straight into the heart lips. To his joyful surprise, on with- of things, and informed him of his own drawing it, the surface was slightly Worthington-John Ridout. dark suspicions of madame. The prince dulled. He at once shouted for assisting ance, and presently, on the arrival of very little of the end.

Worthington—John Rident. No. 9. Gray vs. Richardson. Attorneys, McCammon & Hayden—A. A. Hoehling, fr. No. 10. Dudley vs. Owens. Altorneys, Putman & Voerloeff, everything in the power of amounts of the end.

now go on deck, but if you will send for me when you are ready I shall take you to see the bodies."

Cressingham no longer felt a trace of seasickness. Voerloeff's news had effect.

"Possibly, your highness."

"Hark! what is that?" A woman's scream rang out of a sudden through the stillness, a wild cry for help. The prince sprang excitedly to his feet.

"Stan!" said Cressingham received a score of imploring messages from madame, but he steeled his heart and replied to none of them. He did not see the prince again.

verely bruised his forehead, "What!" thundered the prince.
"A measure I consider most necessary sighted the smoking top of Mount Vess On the afternoon of the second day they vius, and some hours afterward dropped Voerloeff, and found Capt. Fagerholm seconds; Cressingham stern and quite relying as the officer had described, and the solved, the prince mad with anger, his only sign which he could detect himself face white, his eyes glittering like beads, to the yacht's side, and Mr. Perigord and Otherwise he might have been taken to be enjoying deep and peaceful slumber, so calm and reposeful were his features. He must have died without consciousness of pain and actually while sleeping, for his cyclids were closed and in nowise strained, while the cycs beneath were strained, while the cycs beneath were stead of removing himself to a safe distance. He might have disdained you and thrown you aside, has disdained you and thrown you aside.

Estate of John D. J. Utombe, saloon. Cressingham once heard the prince's nervous voice raised in loud exposultion, after that nothing for quite two hours, at the end of which time who has a saloon. Cressingham once heard the prince's nervous voice raised in loud exposultion, after that nothing for quite two hours, at the end of which time who has a saloon. Cressingham once heard the prince's n Voerloeff immediately led them to the done well," said aloud, "I wish you to accompany me ashore, my lord."

Cressingham nodded, and with great difficulty restraining his curiosity, followed Perigord down the gangway into the little steam tender that groaned alongside. A very strong hot wind was blowing from the land, and there being no little steam tender that groaned alongside. A very strong hot wind was blowing from the land, and there being no little steam tender that groaned alongside. A very strong hot wind was blowing from the land, and there being no little steam tender that groaned alongside. A very strong hot wind was blowing from the land, and there being no little steam tender that groaned alongside. A very strong hot wind was blowing from the land, and there being no little steam tender that groaned alongside. A very strong hot wind was blowing from the land, and there being no little steam tender that groaned alongside. A very strong hot wind was blowing from the land, and there being no little steam tender that groaned alongside. A very strong hot wind was blowing from the land, and there being no little steam tender that groaned alongside. A very strong hot wind was blowing from the land, and there being no little steam tender that groaned alongside. A very strong hot wind was blowing from the land, and there being no little steam tender that groaned along tenders are strong to the land the long tenders of the land the land the long tenders of the land the land the long tenders of the land the Cressingham shut the cabin door and arswered: "It was not heart disease, was his guest, and the further fact that the prince difficulty restraining his curiosity, follow-darswered: "It was not heart disease, was his guest, and the further fact that by the prince of th > serve and spoke: "I congratulate you on ants, your seasickness, my Lord." "Then you think as I?" cried Cressingham, delighted with such support.

"Why, I think so, sir.

Dawson vs. Stoll. Attorneys, Gittings &

JUSTICE STAFFORD.

Ambrose, United States vs. John A. Leffingwell, grand lar

United States vs. Henry Carrow, grand larceny; ecognizance taken, with W. W. Stewart surety, Assignments for Friday, October 19, 1906;

Criminal Court No. 2.

JUSTICE BARNARD. United States vs. Howard McDonald, housebre, ng; verdict, not guilty. Attorney, J. E. Collins. Assignments for Friday, October 19, 1995; Arraignments, motions, and sentences.

Probate Court.

JUSTICE GOULD.

In re Ruth J. McNaney, order appointing John J. McNaney guardian; bond, $1,500. Attorney, John

Estate of Giovanni Malatesta, will admitted t probate and letters testamentary granted to Felice Cristofani and Bernard M. Bryan; bond, $200. At-torney, J. A. Toomey. Estate of John Frans, letters of administration

H. Meyers; account $450. Plaintiff's attorney, J. Dawson Williams.

replevin, Plaintiff's attorney, J. S. Easby

Equity Suits.

No. 28519. Addie Daily et al. vs. Arabella Stark et al.; to seil real estate. Complainants' solicitors, Irving Williamson and James F. Bundy. No. 28820. Timothy Nelligan vs. George M. Em-merich et al.; to substitute trustee. Complain-

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

John Ridout and G. C. Gerfman.
Walker vs. Hoover; scaled verdict ordered. Plaintiff's attorneys, J. B. Archer, fr., and J. Lewis Smith; defendant's attorney, George Francis Willouts for Friday, October 19, 1906 (motions No. I. Mendel vs. Mutual Reserve Life Insurance company. Attorneys, Hayden & Franc-Ralston &

Smith, lots 22 and 23, block 2, $10.

ichester—Mary E. Jordan et al. to Evander French and Nathaniel R. Harnish, lot 6, $10.

etchall's Chance-James Sharp et ux. to Nellie W. Fineh, part, $10.

indle Highlands—National Safe Deposit and Trust Company, trustee, to United States Realty Company, lot 23, block 19, $10. United States Realty Company to Benjamin W. Townsend, same property $10.

end streets—Franklin Schneider et ux. to Jose-phine B. Ketcham, lots 53 and 54, square 756, S10.

Richard Waln Meirs, son-in-law of Mrs. 100.

Richard Waln Meirs, son-in-law of Mrs. 100.

Richard Waln Meirs, son-in-law of Mrs.

Quit Claims.

3-Josephine Davis and Henry E. Davis et William O. Bohrer, part original lots 27, Deeds of Trust.

pare 623-Elvira E. Snyder to Harry C. Columbus and Frank B. Slater, to secure James Burns, parently secure in the title of the second parently secure in the title of the second $300, one to twelve months, 6 per cent, lot 24. ition to Le Droit Park-George R. Washington et ux. to Chapin Brown and Henry H, Bergmann, to secure Oriental Building Association No. 6, $3,600, lot 46, square 34, are 207-Elizabeth F. Caldwell et vir Milton P. to Ernest L. Schmidt and William H. Saunders, to secure Emma J. Smith, $3,200, five years, 5 per cent, semi-annually, lot 49. service, Rev. Louis S. Walsh was conse-Square 134-Thomas W. Smillie to Washington Lorn crated bishop of the diocese of Portland 22.

ware 514-William Morris et ux. to Isaac Heidenheimer and John D. Sullivan, to secure Elias Heidenheimer, 34,690, three years, 5 per cent,
Civil Service Commission in the Philipper

lot 32.
uare 400—Mary E. Frank et vir Edward J. to Henry H. Bergmann and Charles Schafer, to secure Northern Liberty German-American Building Association No. 6, $3,500, part lot 9.

ing Association No. 6, $3,500, part lot 9.

Long Meadows-August Schmidt et ux. to Chapin Brown and Henry H. Bergmann, to secure Oriental Building Association, No. 6, $200, lot $2 block 27.

Kalorama Heights-Maxwell Van Zandt Woodhull Kalorama Heights-Maxwell Van Zandt Woodhull to Edward J. Stellwagen and William Corcoran Hill, to secure estate of Anthony J. Drexel, $2,699, 3 years, 5 per cent, semi-annually, lot roft-Emma J. Smith to George W. White and Whitam U. Kay, to secure Farmie A. Sout-crville, $100. 3 years, 5 per cent., semi-annually, lots 22 and 23, block 2. quare 134—Martha A. Roosa to Richard W. Tyler and Robert G. Rutherford, to secure Flora B. Cabell, $3,000, 3 years, 5 per cent, semi-annually, letchell's Chance-Neilie W. Finch et vir James A. to Edward H. Thomas and William E. Jones, to secure James Sharp, $3,990, 1, 2, and 5 years.

to secure James Sharp, $3,000, 1, 2, and 5 years, 5 per cent., semi-annually, part. olumbia Helghts-George C. Altemas et ux. to Union Trust Company, to secure Fidelity Trust Caupany, trustee, $4,000, 5 years, 4½ per cent. semi-annually, lot $3, block 35, (Re-record of liber 2829, folio 255.) olmead Manor-Harry Wardman and Harry B. Willson to Secure William J. Fentress, $3,250, 3 years, 5 per cent., semi-annually, lot 71, block 44. Same to same, to secure same, $38,500, 3 years, 5 per cent., semi-annually, lots 72 to 85, block 44 (14 trusts of $2,750 cach, one on each lot.)

West Fekington-Cecilia B. Miller et vir Roger P. to Norman L. Sansbury and Emmanuel Speich, to secure Capital City Improvement Company, $2,000, 1 to 80 months, 6 per cent, lot 32, black 6, quare 736-Josephine B. Keitcham to Charles P. Stohe and Charles W. Fairfax, to secure T. Franklin Schneider, $600, 1 to 24 months, 6 per cent, lots 53 and 54.

Acadree Charlon, trissec, for the fines A. A. A. 1 and 2. block 22; lots 1, 2, 4 to 16, block 36, 81.

1402 Belmont street northwest-William H. Lewis, trustee, to Fred E. Beecher, lots 2, 3, and part lots 4 and 5, South Grounds Columbian College, $10.

DAILY COURT RECORD.

Supreme Court of the United States.

Presunt: The Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Brown, Mr. Justice Revum, Mr. Justice Brown, Mr. Justice Day, William E Profess of Excellent Springs, Mo., and Revum and the Compalation's solicitor, Mr. Justice Brown, Mr. Ju P. O. Wells, submitted by Br.
P. Wells, Size Br.
P. Wells, S

Present: The Chief Justice, Mr. Justice McComas, and Mr. Justice Robb.

Admissions—Arthur A. Fisher, George H. Patrick. and Ormsby McTammon.

No. 1725. Grant vs. United States; motion for mandate to issue forthwith, submitted by D. Wolf & Rosenberg.

O'Neill vs. Ferrell; order for publication.

Pope vs. Stannard; verdict for plaintiff for $300, motion and by J. A. O'Shea in opposition thereto; motion denied.

No. 1723. Gros vs. Norment et al.; appeal dismissed, with costs.

Mr. Justice Robb.

Whitford vs. Holzbeierlein; sealed verdict for defendant's attorneys, W. A. Johnston; defendant's attorneys, B. Rosenberg.

O'Neill vs. Ferrell; order for publications.
Pope vs. Stannard; verdict for plaintiff for $300, motion and by J. A. O'Shea in opposition thereto; motion denied.

No. 1723. Gros vs. Norment et al.; appeal dismissed, with costs.

Guerdrum vs. Stye; verdict for plaintiff for $300, motion and by J. A. O'Shea in opposition thereto; motion denied.

No. 1723. Gros vs. Norment et al.; appeal dismissed, with costs.

Guerdrum vs. Stye; verdict for plaintiff for $300, motion and by J. A. O'Shea in opposition thereto; motion denied.

No. 1723. Gros vs. Norment et al.; appeal dismissed, with costs.

Guerdrum vs. Stye; verdict for plaintiff for $300, motion denied.

Guerdrum vs. Stye; verdict for plaintiff for $300, motion denied.

Guerdrum vs. Stye; verdict for plaintiff for $300, motion denied.

Guerdrum vs. Stye; verdict for plaintiff for $300, square 729, $6,180, Same to same, lot 27, square 729, $6,180, Same to sa

Now York, Oct. 18.—Because of the fact pland, Exprey, New Zealand, and Now York, Oct. 18.—Because of the fact pland, Exprey, New Zealand, and Now York, Oct. 18.—Because of the fact pland, Exprey, New Zealand, and Now York, Oct. 18.—Because of the fact pland, Exprey, New Zealand, and Now York, Oct. 18.—Because of the fact pland, Exprey, New Zealand, and Now York, Oct. 18.—Because of the fact pland and the following the matter of the property of factors, and the following the plant of the plant of the plant of the plant of the will of the late Hermann of the plant of the will of the late Hermann of the plant of the will of the late Hermann of the plant of the will of the late Hermann of the plant of the will of the late Hermann of the plant of the will o

William A. Gordon, to seenre Watson F. Clark, $5.000, 3 years, 5 per cent, semi-annually, part original lot 10.

END OF WEIGHTMAN CASE.

Report Is that Fight for Possession of Millions Is at an End.

crty. $10.

8. 339 and 341 F street southwest—Robert M. C.
Bacon et ux. to Charles H. Parker, lots 33 and 34. square 538, $16. Charles H. Parker convers same property to Francis Leonard, $10.

st Eckington—The Capital City Improvement Company to Cecilia B. Miller, lot 39, square 6, but no official confirmation could be had special to The Washington Herald. that such a step had been taken by Mrs.

Jones-Wister. Jones-Wister, but who, with his wife, had sided against his mother-in-law in the fight to break the millionaire's will, said o-day the case is entirely closed.

ad 29, $1.

234 - William S. Smoot to Sarah E. M.

245, Mary Smoot, and Margaret Smoot, part 5 and 6 (premises Nos, 1299 and 1211 K

246 - Wister family were reported to have held a conference yesterday, at which two of the attorneys representing are 331-Mary M. Dereale to Thomas Walker, their interests were present. A connecpart lot F, $5.
pare 163—Eveline Ingram to Emeline Johnson, part lot f, $10.
pare 274—Samuel C. Redman to Edith L. Redman, lot 139, $16.

Tuesday in Mr. Simpson's office, and that Mrs. Wister's confident statement issued. late that afternoon was merely the "big

Mrs. Anne Weightman Walker, now ap richest woman in America, left the Edouard yesterday and retired to her beautiful country place, "Raven Hill," near Germantown.

Bishop Walsh Consecrated. Portland, Me., Oct. 18.-With impressive service, Rev. Louis S. Walsh was conse and Trust Company, to secure Equitable Cooperative Building Association, $1,000, lot 123, luare 502—Elizabeth Kahlert et vir Gustave to Charles F. Benjamin and Roger T. Mitchell, to secure Perpetual Building Association, $400, lot

The Catholic churchmen from all over New President States. The England and neighboring States Baseling J. Whalen et ux. to Henry H. Bergmann and George M. Emmerich, to secure Metropolis Building Association No. 8, $509, lot McDevitt, of Philadelphia.

Semi-annually, lot 50.

Jare 736—Pasquale di Marzo et ux. to Henry H.

Bergmann and George M. Emmerich, to secure Metropolis Building Association No. 8, $2,000, sail from Seattle next Saturday.

Your Money Wants

Can be quickly satisfied if you will come to us. We are the largest loan company in the because our rates are lowest and our manner businesslike loan any amount from $5 to $300 on household goods, pianos, horses, and fixtures. We're loan headquarters in all that the term implies.

Washington Loan Company,

610 F St. N. W.

"The Old Reliable."

gerholm and one of the passengers, an i man, are lying in their cabins, stone 'Dend!" echoed Cressingham, stupidly lead, not dead?" "Yes!" The man was stolld as an owl. did not appear at all agitated or surised, only a little annoyed, and much erplexed. "They must have died in eir sleep, quite peacefully." he continerefore, Cressingham met him now for

"Good morning," said Cressingham, sus-

CHAPTER IX-Continued.

lf. called "blue devils."

first time.

en poisoned, sir?" ressingham feverishly recommenced to "When was this?" he demanded.

d. "There are no marks on their bod and their faces are perfectly comed. Do you think they could have

AUTHOR OF "VIGOROUS DAUNT, BILLIONAIRE." YNOPSIS PRECEDING CHAPTERS, old gentleman, colonel-ah, I forget his name. The prince is on deck now, talk-g chapters of the Counterstroke, it ing to the woman passenger. He asked related how one Mr. Perigord, the mysterious me to tell you."

and of a powerful secret society, orders three other "I see. I suppose you are the captain

THE COUNTERSTROKE

AMBROSE PRATT.

pers-Lord Cressingham, Count von Oeltjen, Prince Carlos-to aid him in running down "I suppose so. The prince has asked heads of the nihilist organization in Europe. me to touch at Spartivento, as he wishes three men are infatuated with a Mme. Viyella, to cable the news somewhere. I don't know quite whether to do as he says or case, however, the infatuation is merely temary, as he is really in love with Francine Elliott, laughter of Col. Vernon Elliott. After many should now apply to me. Do you not ing experiences the story develops to the point think so?"

"Undoubtedly, Mr.—?"
"Voerloeff." ake by nihilist agents and taken to a distant Perigord and placed on his yacht, together with a other principal figures in the intrigue. Mme. with you, and, moreover, I happen to died of heart disease."

When Voerloeff. I thoroughly agree to suspect her. In my with you, and, moreover, I happen to know that Mr. Perigord will be anxiouswella persuades three of the party, Col. Elliott. It awayiting our arrival and anxious"What; two in one ella persuades three of the party, Col. Elliott, ly awaiting our arrival, and would be captain of the ship, and Lord Cressingham, to much annoyed if we delayed our journey take of some sweetmeats. Lord Cressingham is by an hour."

sen sick, however, the mement he places the "That settles the matter, then. I must Uttering a wild, unintelligible gurgle of ed a complete cure by virtue of its shock e, he sprang to his feet and made ; It for his cabin, where happily arrived thout mishap he was very ill, indeed, but the dreadful facts, but soon he com quite an hour afterward. He slept menced to ask himself reasons, to seek ally that night and his sleep was so auses, to suspect and argue with him self. He went to inspect the bodies with Voerloeff, and found Capt. Fagerholm seconds; Cressingham stern and quite red suffering from what the patent mediadvertisements describe as "Progof anything wrong was a slight bluish "You treat a woman in this fashion," swelling round the nostrils and lips. he stuttered slowly; "it is not because stications of evil," and what he, him-Otherwise he might have been taken to you truly suspect her; it is because she be enjoying deep and peaceful slumber, has disdained you and thrown you aside. A stiff whisky and soda did him very ttle good, but it gave him strength to and a severe shock presently. He had case in sleep.

"It looks like heart disease," said Voer-thrust his forehead almost under Cresane, who not being a ladies' man had t ventured on the quarter-deck, and, he captain's corpse. ding operations, and sitting down on s bunk, one leg in, one out of his trousthe woman passenger, who is really as an Englishman, straight from the shoulside. A very strong hot wind was blowder, and with such hearty good will that ing from the land, and there being no party, and afterward sugar plums. The dinner was not peisoned, for we all partook, and three of us still live. The plums were; for those who ate of them are dead. The prince refused to eat; he is through a haze of cigarette smoke.

The prince us a dinner was not peisoned, for we all partook, and three of us still live. The plums were; for those who ate of them are dead. The prince refused to eat; he is through a haze of cigarette smoke.

The prince us a dinner being no shelter on the launch, conversation was shelter on the launch, conversation was not peisoned, for we all partook, and three being no shelter on the launch, conversation was prince plums. The dinner was not peisoned, for we all partook was knocked completely insensible for a space of several minutes.

When he recovered, it was to see Cressingham contemplatively regarding him are dead. The prince refused to eat; he is through a haze of cigarette smoke.

The prince us of the mand, and there being no shelter on the launch, conversation was promoted impossible.

H. Meyers; account $450. Plaintiff's attorney, J. Dawson Williams.

No. 48876. Same vs. Meyers & Wunderly; notes, $2,100. Plaintiff's attorney, J. Dawson Williams.

No. 48876. Edward E. Gray vs. John F. Javins, appeared in a carriage. The health of appeared in a carriage appeared in a carriage.

> "Women are the devil, sir. What would almost sorry for the blow, such a tiny you advise me to do?" "Put her in irons, and confine her to in his impotent rage and his despair,"
> "You want to fight me, I suppose?" he

"Good, very good; I shall do it." He went to the door, then turned with shrugging shoulders: "The prince, what of "Oh, you mean murder, then." Co

An hour ago, sir. I found the cap-ingham. "Do not tell him what you in- ished. arted in to tell the others. The little my cabin.

elson, of Pennsylvania, supreme cap-general; Frank Hayden, of Worces-Mass., supreme prelate; Frank Gray, and San Francisco. The estate is esti-institution until failing health compelled doctor on board so that he might verify Fagerholm, but later a sence of duty im-Prince Carles knocked at his cabin obligations undone.

"Bah" cried the prince at last; madame gave me the box unopened as she herseif received it from her English statesman. Was it not sealed; did you not see me cut the strings? Do you forget the ring and madame's surprise and pleasure at finding it? Besides, madame are more plums herself than we all put together."

Cressingham frowned, "All that proves nothing. Madame is a clever woman, a superlatticely madame and was apparently in-

"What; two in one night, your highness, out of a company of five?"

"Why not? Stranger things have happened."

"Control of the next forty-eight hours relays of sail-tone years and chaffing the process of drenching and chaffing the old man's body.

"Chited States vs. Henry Carrow, grand larceny; Company of the next forty-eight hours relays of sail-tone years and the next forty-eight hours relays of sail-tone years and the next forty-eight hours relays of sail-tone years with the and horrid suddenness. The young man I can explain the meaning of that scream. felt unable to think at first of anything Madame is being put in irons—".

for our common safety."

ust commenced to dress when a tap ounded on his door and there entered second officer, a grim, hard-visrged second officer, a grim, hard-visrged second officer, a grim, hard-visrged strained, while the eyes beneath were turned slightly upward as is always the loeff, after a prolonged examination of singham's nose Cressingham's reply was not in words.

alive. I was ill, seasick, just as I was about to swallow one; I am alive. Whether madame ate any or not I do not know, but if she ate any she ate harm Inding words with the utmost difficulty.

The prince respect to eat, he is through a naze of elastect shore.

The prince respect to eat, he is through a naze of elastect shore.

The prince respect to eat, he is through a naze of elastect shore.

The prince respect to eat, he is through a naze of elastect shore.

The prince respect to eat, he is through a naze of elastect shore.

The prince respect to eat, he is through a naze of elastect shore.

The prince respect to eat, he is through a naze of elastect shore.

The prince respect to eat, he is through a feet and also in silence, except that he rattled some coins in his pocket as if to reassure himself.

No. 4877. Frank O. Everett vs. Laura V. Har some coins in his pocket as if to reassure himself. voerloeff nodded his head very gravely.

To the Englishman he appeared a very pitiful object, indeed: Cressingham felt

"Oh, you mean murder, then." Cresim; he is interested in this woman; he singham laughed contemptuously. The prince got somehow to the door, gave his enemy one terrible glance, and vanished led him slowly into the city. am; he is interested in this woman; he singham laughed contemptuously. The

In hour ago, sir. I found the capfirst, and when I saw he was dead arted in to tell the others. The little c man, a prince, isn't he, found the
c man, a prince, isn't he, found the capins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy one terrible glance, and vanled him slowly into the city.

Ins enemy of Jones Ins enemy of Jones

iffend. He had been at first quite satisfied to have examined the corpse of Capt.
Fagerholm, but later a sence of duty impelled him to leave no particular of his obligations undone.
The old gentleman was lying on his

Siddons,
No. 2. Richardson vs. Washington Times Company. Attorneys, B. T. Doyle-W. J. Lambert.
No. 2. Karr vs. Goldenberg. Attorneys, Carringto digations undone.

The old gentleman was lying on his

The old gentleman was lying on his Hamilto

Cressingham frowned. "All that proves nothing. Madame is a clever woman, a superlatively perfect actress. I have reason to know it, and so I think have you."

"Well, my lord, I think you are mad to suspect her. In my opinion the men died of heart disease."

"What; two in one night, your high-"

"What; two in one night, your high-" United States vs. Calvin Bryan, housebreaking; verdict, guilty. Attorney, C. H. Hemans. United States vs. Charles H. Reed, robbery; ver-dict, guilty; defendant remanded. Attorney, W. E.

strang excitedly to his feet.

Stay!" said Cressingham. "There is no need for your highness to be disturbed. I can explain the meaning of that scream.

Stelled his heart and replied to hole of them. He did not see the prince again, and Voerloeff informed him that his highness was confined to his cabin, having struck his head against a skylight and se-

The men stared at each other for ten anchor in the Bay of Naples, a mile out the port health officer climbed on board and whispering in his ear, "You have done well," said aloud, "I wish you to himself.

No. 4873. George C. Jeffery vs. Charles and Bertha Vance; account, $1,000. No attorney for defend-

"Precisely, since I still retain possession that is, if you have any appetite."

ant's solicitor, J. A. Maedeli